

Political Advisor

EMILY's List, the nation's largest resource for women in politics, is searching for a Political Advisor to join our Campaigns team. EMILY's List has raised over $600 million to elect pro-choice Democratic women candidates. With a grassroots community of over five million members, EMILY's List helps Democratic women win competitive campaigns – across the country and up and down the ballot – by recruiting and training candidates, supporting strong campaigns, researching the issues that impact women and families, and turning out women voters to the polls. Since our founding in 1985, we have helped elect 150 women to the House, 26 to the Senate, 16 governors, and nearly 1,100 women to state and local office. Nearly 40 percent of the candidates EMILY's List has helped elect to Congress have been women of color. During the historic 2017-2018 cycle, EMILY's List raised a record-breaking $110 million dollars and launched a record independent expenditure campaign. We helped elect 34 new women to the House, including 24 red-to-blue victories; enough seats to have delivered the U.S. House majority alone. Since the 2016 election, more than 40,000 women have reached out to EMILY's List about running for office laying the groundwork for the next decade of candidates for local, state and national offices.

Principal Responsibilities

As a member of the Campaigns Department, the Political Advisor will work to assess the overall campaigns of Pro-Choice Democratic women candidates. The Political Advisor serves as a critical link between EMILY's List and campaigns on the ground by providing professional advice to the campaign and assessing its operation. The Political Advisor also helps guide campaigns through the course of assessment and endorsement and evaluates the campaign operation continuously throughout the course of the campaign for endorsed candidates.

Specific Duties

- Develop and maintain political relationships to identify and recruit strong Pro-Choice Democratic women to run in competitive races;
- Work directly with campaigns and advise them on critical components of their operation including:
 - Building a professional campaign team including recruiting effective campaign managers and other campaign staff;
 - Developing and maintaining campaign budgets and plans;
 - Building and executing the campaign strategic plan;

- Recommending media consultants, pollsters, mail consultants and other consultants;
 - Reading polls;
 - Reviewing and understanding television ad buys;
 - Establishing high-quality campaign structures for field, research, communications, digital, and fundraising;
 - Working directly with prospective and endorsed candidates;
 - Building strong relationships with candidates and campaign staff on behalf of EMILY's List.
- Communicate needs and goals of EMILY's List endorsement process for candidates;
 - Understand the needs of individual campaigns and advocate for support from EMILY's List on their behalf;
 - Assist with the EMILY's List training program;
 - Performs other duties as assigned.

Qualifications

The Political Advisor must be a self-starter with at least six years of campaign and electoral experience, including federal campaign experience. Campaign management experience is highly desired. The Political Advisor must have a strong interest in electing Pro-Choice Democratic Women to office, possess excellent communication skills, good attention to detail, the ability to think on one's feet, a sense of humor, and a commitment to the diversity of our staff, candidates, members, and partners. The Political Advisor must be willing to travel extensively. Commitment to the diversity of our candidates, membership, partners, and staff required.
